

24 August 2018

Dear Captain Laborde, Alejandro, Bettina, Enrique and all our friends at Chadwick Weir Navegacion.

Many congratulations on celebrating your Centenary this evening, which is an incredible achievement indeed!

I see from our archive that Chadwick Weir Navegacion formally agreed to represent Britannia on 8th February 1961. On that day, John F Kennedy was the US President and in the UK, Elvis Presley was riding high in the charts with "Are You Lonesome Tonight"! You will not be "Lonesome Tonight" I am sure with all the good company you are keeping in Montevideo.

Although regrettably I am unable to join you tonight to celebrate in the festivities within the auspicious surroundings of the British Ambassador's Residence, on behalf of all the Members and staff at Britannia that you have assisted over the years, we raise a glass to your continued success and longevity for the next Century ahead with all the challenges and attention our industry demands.

With warmest regards

Dear Sirs,

REPRESENTATION.

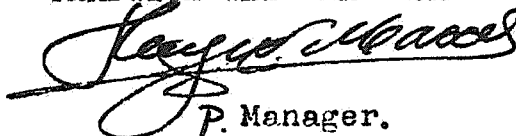

We thank you for your letter of 27th January offering us the representation of your interests here effective from end of the current month.

With pleasure we inform you we shall be agreeable to accept your offer and apart from sending us your Book of Rules embodying lists of entered vessels we do not think we require any further information. We take it that fees to be charged will be based on the amount of work involved in each case which is the system we work upon with the other Associations we already represent, however should you have any set fees we shall be obliged if you will send us a list for our guidance.

Would you please clarify with Messrs. Barbosa Carevia whether they have any unclosed cases and, if so, whether they will attend to them until completion, failing which that they hand over all relevant documents to us. At the same time should they not wish to become involved in any new cases which may arise between now and the end of February we have no objection to attending to them although officially our representation does not commence prior to 1st March 1961.

Assuring you of our best attention to your interests at all times,

Yours faithfully,
CHADWICK WEIR NAVEGACION LDA.,

P. Manager.
